INTERSTATE COMMERCE.

CHICAGO, June 12.—The congressional interstate commerce committee met in this city to-day. Upon reassembling this afternoon a paper written by ex-Commissioner Brainard was read. In order to prevent extortions and unjust discriminations by corporations Brainard favored the creation of a railroad commission with power to establish reasonable maximum rates of freight and fares to be made [illegible] and to allow discriminations that are not unjust. He was opposed to differential rates as impractical, but he considered pooling contracts between railroads doing interstate business permissible when not containing objectionable features. He was a believer in water ways, where they could be utilized at reasonable expense, as a means of cheap transportation, and thought that rates ought to be based on the cost of the road and the expense of transportation, and not on a basis of watered stock.

Philip W. Dale, of the board of trade, a dealer in grain, said the principal complaint heard was discrimination in the way of rebates. He had known $15,000 in rebates to be owing one man here. He doubted if the government should go further at the start than to prevent extortion and discrimination. He thought legislation, if it tended at all, should [illegible] toward the masses.

Holland Archmond of Chicago favored a federal commission. He inveighed against the pass system and said that the [illegible] cents per mile was too high for passenger rate. The commission will resume its labors to-morrow morning.

A PHILADELPHIA SCANDAL.

PHILADELPHIA, June 12.—[Special.]—A great [illegible] has been created among the best people of Philadelphia by a prank played by two society young men yesterday. One of the most famous female seminaries of the city located in the rural suburbs, was visited by two young sisters of charity, who solicited alms for the sick and suffering, and were hospitably received by the lady principal of the school and shown through the dormitories. They affected unusual interest in the pupils and finally obtained permission to open subscriptions in sweet charity's name. The young ladies subscribed liberally and some of them even [illegible] a blessing and holy kiss which they received, both being administered with a fervor that impressed the recipients. When the sisters departed several girls noticed their feet and [illegible] went round that they wore pantaloons. Every effort was made to keep the matter secret, but it is the talk of the clubs and it is learned that the exploit was attempted for a wager of $1000 by two gilded youths. The affair has created a profound sensation. The subscriptions from the girls were forwarded with a considerable sum in addition to the charities suggested by them, but this only makes the matter more difficult to hush [illegible].

THE GRANT AND WARD FAILURE.

NEW YORK, June 12.—Testimony was taken before referee to-day in a motion [illegible] of the Grant & Ward failure. John H. Morris, receiver of the Marine bank, charges that James D. Fish conveyed to six relatives, December 31, 1884, property that should go to the creditors of the bank. C. Spencer, cashier for Grant & Ward, testified that the firm's capital was $400,000. Of the cash contributed U. S. Grant put in [illegible] and Ferdinand Ward [illegible]. [illegible] It was frequently the case that the firm paid more for the use of money than it received in interest. Witness said he sometimes drew on his private account to pay the firm's [illegible] to depositors. He stated that Grant & Ward did a legitimate business after February 28, 1884.

RAILROAD NOTES.

A CENTRAL PACIFIC SHAREHOLDER COMPLAINS.

NEW YORK, June 12.—[Special.]—The Railroad Gazette contains a letter from W. J. Martin dated Plymouth, England, in which he says he is a large shareholder in the Central Pacific and has been on the register for several years. "I also hold," he says, "a large amount of the stock not registered in my name. I never sold a single share, and up to this time have received no intimation from the Central Pacific [illegible] that the lease of the road had been granted to the Southern Pacific. Huntington, in writing to me March 11, 1885, does not mention the lease. It is most unfair to the Central and its clauses are most obscure. The action of the directory in making a dividend of $12,000,000 which is not payable until May, 1890, is absurdly inadequate. It appears to me that Stanford, Huntington and Crocker have betrayed and sacrificed our interests. I am utterly at a loss to understand how they can allow such transactions to be consummated without the consent of the shareholders."

The Railroad Gazette agrees with its correspondent that the lease of railroads should always be submitted to stockholders. "As to the terms of the lease of the Central we do not feel so sure that the amount is absurdly inadequate. The days when transcontinental railroads could make great profits is past forever. They will have to take what other companies are willing to charge or they will be duplicated or tripled."

A WHISKEY WAR.

SKOWHEGAN, Maine, June 12.—[illegible] which has been brewing for some time over the enforcement of the prohibitory law, culminated last night in the organization of a mob armed with revolvers and stones, and attacks were made upon a number of houses, in which windows were smashed and other damage done. The gang went to the house of William H. Frost about a quarter of a mile from the village and sent a shower of rocks through the windows, accompanied by a volley of bullets from revolvers fired in reckless disregard of the sleeping family within. Taking the street road to the village the mob next stopped at the house of John W. Frost, a trial justice. Here shots were fired into the house where women, children and an old man were sleeping. Fortunately no one was [illegible]. [illegible] windows [illegible] C. H. [illegible] was [illegible] also windows were [illegible] damaged. The residence of W. The children obtained possession of the can in some manner, and while playing with it [illegible]. One of them applied a match [illegible] the can, and an explosion followed. RAILROAD ACCIDENT.

CINCINNATI, June 12.—Dispatches received by the officers of the Cincinnati and Southern road from Somerset, Kentucky, deny the report current last night that a construction train had been wrecked by the caving of a tunnel. The story arose from the fact that a roadmaster's construction train going south last night was thrown from the track two miles north of the river bridge by striking a cow. NOTES FROM LEWISTON.

LEWISTON, June 12.—[Special.]—[illegible] Second cavalry left Fort Lapwai this morning for [illegible] City via Grande Ronde Valley.

Hostile Nez Perce Indians are scattered at different points of the Lapwai reservation. Public opinion regards the abandonment of Fort Lapwai as unwise. Difficulties are apprehended between friendly and hostile Nez Perces over the action of the reservation Indians in supporting the whites in the war of 1877. The hostiles are already asserting their rights to ponies captured from them during the war. Citizens think a garrison at Fort Lapwai is necessary to maintain and enforce peace between the Indians.

Two Lapwai Indians quarreled at Alpowa last evening yesterday. One was shot twice and seriously wounded. The aggressor was arrested and taken to [illegible] for confinement.

A Poor Rule that Won't Work both Ways.

New York Times [illegible].

If it is regards appointments made on removals of the present incumbents the senate would be quite justified in insisting that where removals have been made for partisan [illegible] the appointees shall not themselves be partisans. In cases where removals are made before the meeting of congress there will be an opportunity to apply this test with some thoroughness. The senate will be sustained by public opinion in refusing confirmation to men appointed during the recess who have been guilty in office of the faults for which their predecessors were [illegible] removed.

What Might Have Been.

New York Letter to Cincinnati Enquirer.

In the republican party there is a mixed feeling concerning Mr. Blaine. Many believe that if he had been elected last November the public policy of this country would have been vigilant and aggressive, and the present stagnation would have been transient. We suspicions are not beyond the belief that a bold mind and spirit in the presidency might have set the wheels of activity to revolving. We remember that all nations owed their resurrection to some man rather than to some [illegible].

THE BRITISH CRISIS.

Gladstone's Resignation Accepted by the Queen.

SALISBURY GOES TO BALMORAL

He is Entrusted with the Task of Forming a New Ministry. Gladstone's Farewell Speech to the House of Commons.

LONDON, June 12.—[illegible] It has just been learned from an authentic source that the report to the effect that the Marquis of Salisbury had been summoned by the queen to Balmoral and that he left last night for the castle is true. The marquis started promptly at midnight for Balmoral.

[illegible]

LONDON, June 12.—Now that it has been [illegible] Marquis of Salisbury [illegible] the tories will assume the reins of government, Parnellites [illegible] have begun conferring with leading conservatives with regard to the government of Ireland. Parnell and his followers strongly urge the tories to adopt a home rule measure for Ireland, stating that the advocacy of such a step by the conservatives would completely dish the liberals.

[illegible]

It is reported to-day in certain circles that Marquis Salisbury, after consultation with conservative leaders, had decided to advise that an effort be made to induce Mr. Gladstone to reconsider his resolve to resign, and should these efforts fail then to suggest that Sir Stafford Northcote be called upon to form a cabinet.

A SERIES OF OVATIONS.

Telegrams from the principal points along the route taken by Marquis Salisbury to Balmoral show that the journey was made through a continued series of popular ovations. On all that part of the way which lay in Scotland crowds of people assembled at all the railway stations and cheered the coming man. At Aberdeen station where the train stopped the demonstration was particularly enthusiastic. Here some one called out "Three cheers for Gladstone," and the invitation was greeted with groans and hisses.

GLADSTONE'S RESIGNATION ACCEPTED.

Salisbury has arrived at Balmoral. At 5 o'clock this afternoon Gladstone received a communication from the queen acknowledging the receipt of the resignation of the prime minister and cabinet. She also states that pending consideration of the resignation of the Gladstone ministry she had summoned to Balmoral Marquis Salisbury.

Gladstone announced in the house of commons this afternoon that he had resigned office, that the queen had accepted his resignation and that her majesty had informed him she had summoned the Marquis of Salisbury, leader of the opposition in the house of lords, to Balmoral for the purpose of intrusting him with the mission of forming a new ministry.

Gladstone [illegible] that under the peculiar circumstances surrounding the outgoing government he would [illegible] propose that the house of commons adjourn until next Monday. A [illegible] proceeded whether it would [illegible] legislation concerning the redistribution bill. The present government would [illegible] with the consent of the house. He did not believe any difference of principle in respect to this important measure could now possibly [illegible]. He [illegible] the house that the government and the opposition were [illegible] regarding the redistribution bill. It would however be gratifying to himself and also to [illegible] they ceased their political [illegible] they could regard the bill as settled and delivered.

Sir Stafford Northcote on behalf of the conservatives responded that his party desired to proceed with the redistribution bill as rapidly as possible. There was no reason why amendments made to the bill by the house of lords should not at once receive the assent of the house of commons, but the question of these amendments was in a peculiar shape and the amendments were not yet printed. He thought it desirable to have them printed before formally acting on them.

Gladstone expressed acquiescence with the view, and the sitting of the house was suspended until the amendments to the bill arrived. The amendments as passed by the lords having finally reached the house the sitting was resumed. It was decided to make the amendments the subject of discussion [illegible] Monday and adjournment was taken to that day.

The promptness with which the queen accepted the resignations of the Gladstone ministry is the subject of general comment. She telegraphed the acceptance instead of sending it by royal courier as is usual in cases of importance.

The Times is still opposed to the resignation of the ministry, saying such action is [illegible] unpatriotic and unfair to the conservatives.

THE HOUSE OF LORDS.

In the house of lords Granville announced that Gladstone had tendered the resignation of himself and his entire cabinet and stated that the Queen had accepted the resignations and had summoned to her presence the Marquis of Salisbury, who is now at Balmoral in conference with her majesty. Therefore Lord Granville said he hoped the house would adjourn until ordinary business.

The remainder of the session was occupied in reading for the third time the redistribution of seats bill and passing amendments thereto.

THE QUEEN.

EARLY MORNING NOTES.

LONDON, June 13.—The News says that the statement that Mr. Gladstone intends to retire from the leadership of the liberals is unauthorized.

Earl Aberdeen has offered Gladstone the use of his residence near London for the remainder of the session.

The queen leaves Balmoral Tuesday and will arrive at Windsor castle Wednesday morning.

It is stated that a message from the queen has arrived for Sir Stafford Northcote.

THE DEAD ARCHBISHOP.

MONTREAL, June 12.—It is estimated that at least 10,000 people were in the church of Notre Dame this morning. The dead archbishop lay in a magnificent coffin, his head resting on a pillow of satin slightly raised, so that the features were exposed to gaze. His mitre of state and cross lay at his feet, the whole elevated on a magnificent catafalque surrounded by hundreds of lighted tapers. Throughout the night members of the Adoration Nocturne remained with the body, reciting prayers for the dead. At 9 o'clock services were begun. The officiating clergymen were Bishop Williams of Boston, Bishop Wadhams of Ogdensburg, Bishop [illegible] of Montreal, and Bishop Duhamel of Ottawa. Archbishop Tache of Winnipeg preached the sermon. After the services at Notre Dame the funeral procession formed and proceeded to the church [illegible] where the remains of Monsignor Lartigue, first bishop of Montreal had lain. These were exhumed yesterday and have ever since been exposed to the adoration of the [illegible]. The procession headed by hearses containing the remains of the archbishop and the bishop, then wended its way to Saint Peter's cathedral where another imposing ceremony took place, after which the remains of the two bishops were laid to rest within the same vault. Streets through which the procession passed were heavily draped in black and gold pontifical colors. The city is crowded with visitors.

HANLAN INTERVIEWED.

TORONTO, June 12.—Hanlan was seen to-night regarding Teemer's challenge for one race or a series of five races. Hanlan says the challenge of Teemer was for one race of three miles, or a series of five races [illegible] three and five miles for $1000 each, which he understood Teemer had accepted. Hanlan does not like Teemer's altering what had been mutually arranged, but is prepared to meet Teemer [illegible] time and place mutually agreed upon to discuss terms.

REV. DUNCAN REACHES OTTAWA.

OTTAWA, Ont., June 12.—Rev. There are a number of other matters they wish adjusted before they return to the [illegible].

FIRE IN LONDON.

LONDON, June 12.—The immense building occupied by the International Inventions exhibition is on fire and burning furiously. It is feared most of the inventions on exhibition will be totally destroyed.

9 P. M.—The vast building in which is being held the international exhibition of inventions is still burning. It is feared that the entire structure with all its contents will be destroyed. The efforts of firemen seem to be [illegible] to stay the progress of the flames or to save property within the building.

The firemen finally obtained mastery over the flames but not until [illegible] articles in the Indian museum had been almost entirely destroyed and the museum building itself was very seriously damaged. The flames did not extend into the immense structure in which the actual exhibition is being held, and thus the actual calamity dreaded was avoided. The damage to the Indian exhibition is however considerable.

The only articles saved from the Indian museum were those which comprise the collection contributed by the Prince of Wales. All the remainder of the Indian exhibit was destroyed.

At 10 o'clock the roof of the burning building collapsed. For a long time it was feared that the flames would extend to other buildings and also to the institute adjoining. The Indian museum contained many costly and rare exhibits of Indian workmanship. These were principally supplied from the South Kensington museum, and it is impossible to replace the loss. The damage to the inventions exhibition building is of a trifling character.

FAREWELL LUNCH TO MORTON.

NEW YORK, June 12.—[Special.]—The Herald's Paris special says: Caubert, formerly French commissioner to the centennial and the Boston exhibition of 1883, and who owing to his great admiration for America and American institutions is very popular among us in our colony here, gave this afternoon a farewell lunch to Mr. and Mrs. Morton at his country seat at Pierrefitte. A large number of Americans were present and it was a most agreeable entertainment, although the absence of Mrs. Morton in consequence of recent illness was much regretted. Caubert in a neat speech proposed Mrs. Morton's health and expressed universal regret which is felt here that Mr. and Mrs. Morton's stay in Paris is drawing so near its close. Mr. Morton responded gracefully in a few well chosen words. Among those present were M. de Lesseps, M. Poubelle, prefect of the Seine, McLane, the new American minister, and [illegible].

The cousin, while afterward visiting the residence of Prenk Doda's mother, was shot dead, and the arrest of the mother and sister of Prenk Doda was immediately ordered. They escaped arrest by seeking and securing refuge in the French consulate. The porte now demands the surrender by the French authorities of the mother and sister of Prenk Doda, claiming they are accomplices in the murder.

GOLD AND SILVER STATISTICS.

WASHINGTON, June 12.—Among the tables in the special report of the director of the mints on the production of gold and silver, soon to be published, is a statement by years showing deposits of domestic gold bullion at the mints and assay offices from July 1, 1873, to January 1, 1885, which amounts to [illegible], and also the production [illegible] as estimated by the director [illegible] amounting to $118,000,000, the total [illegible] for eleven and a half years being only $15,000,000 in excess of deposits of domestic gold. During the last five fiscal years the deposits of foreign coin and bullion have exceeded net imports by over $13,000,000, showing that considerable foreign coin is brought by immigrants upon their person and that some foreign gold bullion is probably brought that is not reported at the custom houses. Another table shows the gold coinage at United States mints for the last twelve fiscal years, which amounts, after deducting United States gold coins remelted, to $515,108,[illegible].

EXPORTS OF BREADSTUFFS.

WASHINGTON, June 12.—The chief of the bureau of statistics reports that the total exports of domestic breadstuffs from the United States during May, 1885, and during the five and eleven months ending May 31, 1885, as compared with similar exports during the corresponding months of the preceding year were as follows: 1885, May, $11,1[illegible],000; 1884, $11,454,000. Five months ended May 31, $67,541,000; previous year, $53,567,000. Eleven months ending May 31, $146,177,000; previous year, $144,7[illegible],000.

The secretary has ordered another trial to settle this point.

WASHINGTON, June 12.—Secretary Bayard has returned from the west.

THE MAXWELL LAND GRANT.

Commissioner Sparks Declares that it was Obtained by the Grossest Fraud.

WASHINGTON, June 12.—Commissioner Sparks of the land office this afternoon submitted to Secretary Lamar a report upon the famous Maxwell land grant of New Mexico, for which nearly 2,000,000 acres of public lands were claimed and patented. The official proceedings leading up to the patent are recited in detail by the commissioner, who says in brief: Pending these proceedings a large number of letters, complaints, petitions, protests and charges were transmitted to this office and the department from citizens of New Mexico, alleging fraud in the location and boundaries. The claim is for extension far beyond the original claim of possession held by the grantees, intrusion of settlement and mining rights and of rights of native inhabitants and [illegible]. Nothing more than a mere formal [illegible] these various complaints and allegations appears to have been taken or done by this [illegible]. No investigation was had, but the claim for this enormous region of country appears to have been carried through by official readiness with no regard to the interests of the government or of the rights of citizens of the territory in actual occupancy of the lands. Evidences of fraud were manifest in the bold fact of the presentation of a claim for nearly 2,000,000 acres based upon a grant of less than 100,000 acres. The grants of the Mexican authorities were governed by the laws of national colonization. The grants were limited in quantity to eleven square leagues or about 48,000 acres to one person. Our boundaries of the localities in the [illegible] applications for grants are usually of [illegible] character. In the present case [illegible]. The alleged marking of boundaries under purported judicial possession was of an unstable character, easily removed and liable to early destruction from natural and other causes. Nothing was easier than to find such alleged monuments wherever they were decided, but in the so-called adjudication of this case the boundaries claimed and the monuments asserted by interested parties were accepted as actual boundaries, and the grant was thus swollen from a little over four townships at the most to more than seventy-five townships of public land.

EXTRAORDINARY PROCEEDINGS.

The proceedings of this office in carrying this extravagant claim through to a patent appear to me to have been of extraordinary character. The decision of the secretary in 1869 was that the claim under confirmation of an act of congress was limited to twenty-two leagues. The refusal of Mr. Secretary Delano for a review restored that decision so far as execution was concerned. If the secretary of the interior could not reopen the case, certainly the commissioner could not under such rules. The commissioner did reopen it as an assumed result of correspondence between himself and the secretary. This correspondence shows that it furnished sufficient basis for the commissioner's action in reopening a decided case. The commissioner's letter asked for instructions as to future cases only, not as to cases previously decided. The secretary replied to this specific request and instructed the commissioner what shall be done hereafter "in similar cases"—not that anything shall be done in cases already settled. He is not instructed to reopen any case that had been decided. The commissioner asked for no instructions in respect to the Maxwell grant or received none. This grant was not before him for a review of the decision of the secretary. He had no duty to perform in regard to it, but he proceeded upon his own motion apparently to order a new survey. He directed this to be made in strict accordance with judicial possession, not according to the facts which must have been determined by law, not according to the confirmation, which made no mention of the alleged "mounds" by which [illegible] square miles of territory were claimed to have been marked out as the boundaries of a grant limited under Mexican laws to 150 square miles, but precisely according to these exaggerated boundaries. And in accepting the alleged boundaries of judicial possession as determinative of the boundaries under that grant and confirmation no notice appears to have been taken of facts disclosed by the records and advertised in the report of the commissioner, and the decision of the secretary in 1869 that a "sketch map, purporting to define such boundaries, and in substantial accordance with which an approved survey was executed, did not accompany the surveyor general's reports upon which confirmation was [illegible], and was therefore no part of such confirmation, but was produced with but slight or no evidence of authority eleven years after such report was made, nine years after confirmation of the grant and twenty-six years subsequent to the date of the document of which it was claimed to be a part, and the claim to possession of the extent so described was contradicted by the grant claimants themselves before a departmental assembly in 1844 when they stated that the grant did not exceed fifteen or eighteen leagues, and exhibited to the assembly a judicial certificate confirming such statements."

THE SURVEYOR GENERAL CENSURED.

The surveyor general, Mr. H. M. Atkinson, had anticipated the commissioner by making a contract for a survey of the claimed boundaries with the same surveyor who had made a private survey for the grant claimants in 1870, which unauthorized contract was not approved by the commissioner. The commissioner's instruction to the surveyor general that a disinterested deputy should be selected to make a survey who has had no connection or business transaction with the owners of the grant appear, however, to have been ignored by the surveyor general, and his neglect of such instructions also does not appear to have been disapproved, for the contract of the survey was given to a brother and the alleged owner himself was his bondsman.

This contract, obnoxious as it seems to me to public morals and official obligations, was approved, and the survey made under it was approved and patented. No decision was rendered by the commissioners upon the boundaries or otherwise, in the case beyond the issue of the patent, but the patent was summarily issued, without formal decision and without opportunity being afforded adverse parties or protestants to appeal to the secretary of the interior, or invoke his supervisory judgment.

In conclusion Commissioner Sparks recommends that suitable action be taken, looking to rigorous prosecution of the suit now pending in the district court of Colorado, and that a new suit be commenced in New Mexico, where the greater part of [illegible] lands lie, to set aside patents already issued under this grant.

AN IMPORTANT DECISION.

A $400,000 Appropriation to be Returned to the Treasury.

WASHINGTON, June 12.—With the approval of the president the postmaster general has decided not to advertise for bids or enter into contracts for the transportation of foreign mails upon the mileage basis, under the authority conferred by act of congress of March 3, 1885. The subject has been under consideration by the cabinet for some time and the conclusion above noted was reached after the presentation by the postmaster-general of an exhaustive argument covering the whole matter. The postmaster general holds and shows by statistics that the present rate of compensation is a just one, and pays carriers more than other freight of a like character; that the money appropriated is not intended as a subsidy, because to subsidize at the rate allowed in the act would take over a million dollars, whereas $400,000 is appropriated. He thinks the vessels will continue to carry at the present rate, and if they should refuse, could be compelled to do so as common carriers, receiving just compensation. He is inclined to the opinion that the money appropriated should be returned to the treasury and summarizes his argument as follows:

It is not necessary to make such contracts in order to provide for the transportation of these mails. The rates now paid give adequate compensation, whenever the mails are of any considerable volume, while previous statutes afford all authority to the department necessary to provide for other cases. This being so, authority could only be exercised with a view to a distribution of money that was unnecessary in fact to compensate mail carriage for the purpose of aiding American steamship companies. Desirable as is the development of these lines, the act does not profess to put money at the postmaster general's disposal for any other purpose than to carry mail. Besides, if so to be distributed, no reason nor rule of discrimination between the different American lines is provided, and yet it would require nearly three times the authorized sum to give all the existing lines the authorized rate of fifty cents per mile. No other means of discrimination are given the postmaster general except [illegible] in his discretion, and there are but two instances of American lines so plying between the same points as could be competitors. He must, therefore, either chose some lines for favorable consideration, rejecting the bids and claims of others, or enter into a general understanding with all possible bidders before their bids should be made to fix the limit such that while the contracts should absorb all, they should not exceed the limits of the appropriation. The former course would be chargeable as unwarranted favoritism and the latter as indecent use of authority professedly designed to be so employed as to excite, not destroy, competition, and neither course could fail in doing injustice to steamship lines or the public, nor does either promise any development of the steamship service or increase of mail facilities.

If a general distribution of the appropriation among American steamship lines on the basis of mileage were to be made, the amount to each would be so small as to avail nothing as a stimulant to increase the number of vessels or the frequency or speed of their voyages. In fact, if the whole of the appropriation should be distributed on the basis of the present number of vessels and mileage, no inducement would remain for an increase. It has seemed, therefore, better to present the subject to congress for more explicit legislation than to attempt to distribute a large sum of public money not in fact required for the use for which it was appropriated, merely because by act of congress the government is given license

RESIGNED—RESPECTFUL RESOLUTIONS.

After the brief incumbency of seven and a half months Rev. Samuel Wood has been compelled, through the failing health of his family, to resign his pastorate of the First Congregational church of East Portland in order to remove to a more bracing climate. In view of this fact the church at a recent meeting adopted the following preamble and resolutions:

WHEREAS, Our pastor, Rev. Samuel Wood, has, on account of ill health of his family, tendered his resignation as pastor of the First Congregational church of East Portland, Oregon, and

WHEREAS, We all realize that under these conditions none but a selfish interest can prompt us to retain him; therefore be it

The Kickers meeting announced for last evening did not take place. It is said the disaffected were disinfected during the day.

The dog poisoning outrage has cropped up again. Night before last Eugene Ferguson lost a valuable black Gordon setter by this means.

The spring term of school in district No. 21 closed yesterday. Summer vacation ensues, and continues to the fall term, which commences in September.

Mr. A. H. Breyman proposes to build a handsome residence on Hassalo street, one block above Holladay avenue, between Third and Fourth. It will consist of two stories and basement. The latter will be nine feet high and the contract for its construction has already been let. The site is one of the most desirable in the city, having an elevation that commands a fine view of the river.

FOREST GROVE ITEMS.

FOREST GROVE, June 12.

Mr. Thomas Frazar, our postmaster, is the "offensive partisan" this time. The new appointee is Mr. J. Griffin, a pronounced democrat.

Dr. [illegible], of the Indian school, has just returned from a visit to several of the Indian reservations. He returned several sick children to their friends.

Professor Edwards and wife returned last evening from The Dalles, where they have been visiting. Professor Edwards filled the pulpit last Sunday for Rev. Mr. Gray.

overstocked and the prices too low to justify payment of the tax, and this in face of the fact that nearly every extension heretofore granted has been followed by a further increase of production

The plan now is to get a favorable opinion from Attorney-General Garland, upon which the distillers will base their petition to Secretary Manning for a further suspension of the law and the exemption of the holders of whisky from the overdue taxes. The purpose is to keep the collectors off until congress meets, when that body will be asked to abolish the tax or grant three years' additional relief. The representatives of the whisky interests claim that they have Attorney-General Garland, Speaker Carlisle, Senator Beck, and other leading democrats committed to the support of their scheme

The extent of the cattle ranges of the United States is shown in a striking manner by the report on the subject just issued by the bureau of statistics at Washington, of which THE OREGONIAN heretofore has given a brief notice. The statistics show that the area in which the cattle interests leads all others embraces 1,365,000 square miles, and is about 44 per cent., or a little less than half of the United States, and is equal to Great Britain and Ireland, France, Germany, Denmark, Holland, Belgium, Austria, Hungary, Italy, Spain and Portugal and one fifth of Russia in Europe. Over 7,500,000 cattle graze on the plains occupied by these ranges, and their value reaches the total of $200,000,000. The significant fact is stated that 21,000,000 acres of this grazing territory is owned by foreign syndicates and English noblemen.

Last week's report showed $151,000,000 cash lying idle in the New York banks. Dull times throughout the country are not caused by scarcity of money. Indeed, money never was so plenty before, but its owners distrust nearly all "investments" that offer, and the profits of business are so small that those who could use money can't afford to pay interest on it.

MR. GATES'S PLATFORM.

PORTLAND, June 12, 1885

To the Citizens of Portland:—The unexpected nomination which I received from the republican convention presents my name for an office in which I may be of service in reforming some of the abuses of the city government and in enforcing an economical administration of city affairs. I desire to assure the citizens of Portland that my efforts on every subject shall be devoted to their interests and particularly towards reducing the burdens of taxation. In this respect I desire it to be fully understood that I consider the taxes in the levying of which the people of Portland have no voice to be the most onerous and exorbitant of which they justly complain. The water rates like the late monopoly rates in the prices of lumber are a most offensive and oppressive tax upon the people of Portland, and they should be materially and permanently reduced. I do not feel like promising that as mayor of the city of Portland I could control the legislature of the state of Oregon, however much I might desire to relieve my fellow-citizens from this onerous water monopoly. The empty honors of the mayor's office cannot induce me to say that I will do something which I may not be able to accomplish. But I can say that if I am elected to the office of mayor—and whether elected or not—I will spend all occasions use every honorable endeavor and the utmost power of my influence to secure a speedy and material reduction of the rates of water charges throughout the city of Portland. In this connection I desire to say also that I am under no promise, agreement, obligation or pledge to any person or corporation concerning anything I may or may not do if elected mayor, and that I do not own any stock in any corporation in Portland or elsewhere. My past conduct ought to be the best evidence of the fidelity with which I will discharge any trust that may be entrusted to me.

Respectfully,
JOHN GATES

NOT A STOCKHOLDER

PORTLAND, OR., June 12, 1885.

TO THE EDITOR OF THE OREGONIAN:

It having been publicly stated that Mr. John Gates is a stockholder of the United States Electric Lighting and Power Co. of Portland, Or., and of the Portland Hydraulic Elevator Co., I, as president of both companies, take this opportunity of saying that Mr. Gates is not a stockholder in either of said companies, nor has he now, nor has he ever had any interest in or connection with either of them, directly or indirectly.

Respectfully yours,
L. L. HAWKINS, President.

New York finished 1884 with a net debt of $94,346,000 and Brooklyn with a net debt of $38,805,000 but the disproportion, although greater than that of population, is not equal to that of the annual cost of the municipal government of the two cities. Brooklyn pays less than $4,000,000 a year or about $12 per capita, for government, while New York pays about $30,000,000 or $20 per capita.

POLITICAL EXPRESSION.

Chicago Tribune: The democratic party employed political murder to get control of the government, and through Meade's removal it has been pilloried before the nation as doing by the president of its own election

Chicago Journal: President Cleveland's private secretary wants his salary raised from $3,600, the price paid his republican predecessors—to $5,000. He has to stand the brunt of the assault from democratic office seekers. There is no wonder that he wants his pay increased.

Philadelphia Press: One of Brother Beecher's sons has been made a collector of customs out in Washington territory. From a steamboat clerk to a revenue officer conforms literally well with Brother Beecher's views on evolution.

Says the Montgomery (Ala.) Advertiser: Fred Douglass has rented a pew in the same church attended by President Cleveland and proposes to sit in it every Sunday with his white wife. The president will have to turn this fellow out of office. The southern gentleman may have faults, but he never so far forgets himself as to recognize the mother of his mulatto children as his wife.—How I'm Transcript.

Indianapolis Journal: The colored man owes nothing to the democratic party. It has been his enemy, his persecutor and oppressor for generations. It is to-day. Colored men who have no higher ambition than to squeeze into menial positions under democracy, who cherish no manly resentment for the century of indignities and humiliations heaped upon them by the democratic party, should take the hint and bend their backs in the service of the democratic party.

Mother Beecher did It.

Milwaukee Wisconsin.

In view of the appointment, many of the Rev. Beecher's friends are at unnecessarily great pains to inform the world that that gentleman has persistently refused to say one word in behalf of his son's appointment and has even prohibited other members of his family from doing so. A few days ago the report was current that Henry Ward would not personally intercede for his boy, but that Henry Ward's wife was arranging things as skillfully as any politician. The fact of the appointment argues that the recent report was truth [illegible] and those who remember President Cleveland's extraordinary letter about Maria Halpin, written to Mrs. Beecher during the presidential campaign, will be strongly inclined to think that Beecher the son owes his new and lucrative federal office wholly to his mother.

A Bulldozer on Bulldozing.

Philadelphia Press.

The Charleston News and Courier commends Mr. Cleveland for asking for the resignation of J. J. Meade the Copiah county bulldozer. It says that Meade took an active part in a most discreditable local political row and even from a democratic point of view his conduct in the matter was not such as to qualify him for a government office? Correct. But as the News goes so far why does it not continue to the logical conclusion of its own premises? The governor, all the state officers and four of the seven congressmen in South Carolina hold office through the same means that Meade is condemned for using. It sounds like the devil rebuking sin to hear a South Carolina bulldozer condemn a Mississippi bulldozer.

THE McMINNVILLE POSTMASTER

McMINNVILLE, June 12, 1885.

TO THE EDITOR OF THE OREGONIAN:

In your issue of June 10, 1885, I notice that you allude to the appointment at McMinnville as being given to one who was an admirer of the lost cause. Now sir I do not know who your informer was, nor do I care, but I have this much to say that it is false.

I was born in the year 1854.

Emigrated to this country in 1862 with my parents.

Now sir I demand a retraction. I pronounce it a lie in the fullest terms. Respectfully,

J. F. WISECARVER.

ANTI HIGH LICENSE RESOLUTION

Resolution adopted at the meeting of the W. C. [illegible] last evening:

Resolved, That we have listened to the argument of Mr. F. Alumbaugh in his using the operations of the high license law in states where it has been introduced, and we acknowledge that it unanswerably proved that as [illegible] to suppress the liquor traffic it is absolutely a failure, and is so recognized by such well known dignitaries of the church as Bishop Ireland and Bishop Spalding.

LOCAL AND GENERAL.

ACROSS THE CONTINENT IN FOUR DAYS.—"I never could have been made to believe when I came to this country in an ox team that a man would ever be able to ride across this country in four days," remarked a pioneer of '52 in the Esmond office yesterday afternoon, as he saw Elijah Smith, president of the O. R. & N. company, alight from a carriage and come in. The trip as compared with Jarrett & Palmer's theatrical train is not remarkable, yet it was only twelve hours slower than that famous run, and the fastest ever made to Oregon. Mr. Smith left New York at 8:10 Monday night and reached the end of his rail journey at the O. and C. ferry landing, East Portland, at 4:15 yesterday afternoon, making the entire time occupied in traveling 3232 miles, including the three hours difference in time, ninety-seven hours and five minutes. The trip from New York to Chicago was made in 26 hours over the Pennsylvania lines, by a slow train, there being no express train in 24 hours. Chicago to Omaha was made in 11 hours, and there was a stop of three hours. The only real fast running was on the Union Pacific. Laramie to Rawlins, 137 miles, was made in 2 hours and 48 minutes, three minutes faster than the Jarrett & Palmer train. Rawlins to Green river, 135 miles, in 2 hours and 50 minutes, 10 minutes faster than the former record. The first thirty-nine miles west of Sydney were made in 39 minutes. There was a delay of 3 hours Thursday afternoon on the Short Line by the breaking of an eccentric, two short delays yesterday on the Baker City branch and nearly an hour's stop at The Dalles. The run from Huntington to Portland, 404 miles, was made in 16 hours and 45 minutes, including stops. The entire running time from New York to Portland, including necessary stops for wood, water and changing engines, was 89 hours and 40 minutes, an average of just 36 miles an hour.

CONVICTED OF BURGLARY.—Wie Ying, the Chinaman indicted for burglary at the White house on the macadamized road, where Robert Wiltze lost his pantaloons, gold watch and chain and all the loose silver he had in his pockets, was tried before Judge Stearns and a jury yesterday, and in a very short time convicted. Immediately afterward the case of Ah Sing, also indicted for burglary in robbing a hen roost, was called. Attorneys Caprey and Snow, who were appointed to defend him, labored as earnestly for his acquittal as though he was a millionaire, taking the ground that a hen roost was not a house, and hence breaking into it did not constitute burglary. The jury did not look at the case in that light, but promptly returned a verdict of guilty.

NEW SUITS.—Complaint was filed in the county clerk's office yesterday by H. A. Hogue vs. S. J. Mooney and Robert Law, asking judgment against the defendants in the sum of $341 68 to pay for lumber furnished Law to build two cottages for Mooney. Emil Weber also brings suit against William R. Frazer to recover $240, alleged to be due upon a certain promissory note dated November 27, 1884, and secured by a mortgage upon two lots in Albina. Jennie Oller seeks a divorce from her husband, William Oller upon the ground that he systematically neglects to provide for her support, but on the contrary has attempted to force her to prostitute herself for his support. They were married in East Portland April 23, 1883.

AN OLD CRIMINAL RETURNS.—Ah Sam and Ah Jim were arrested yesterday for slambanging gongs on the street, whereby the peace and dignity of the city were disturbed and all that sort of thing. It seems that Sam Duck, who used to keep the opium joint on Fifth street, where Dunlap was shot nearly two years ago, has returned to this city. He "skipped out" after Dunlap was shot and went up the Northern where he made about $[illegible]000. He returned about two months ago and has "blown in" his entire fortune in various kinds of dissipation. He has now started a new highbinder society, and the two Ahs mentioned above were beating gongs in honor of the event when they were arrested. Sam Duck kept out of sight himself, as he has his eternal satisfy of being arrested and imprisoned.

WOULD NOT REMAND THE CASE.—In the United States circuit court yesterday morning Judge Deady delivered an opinion denying the motion to remand to the state circuit court the case of Dillard against the Northern Pacific Railroad Company. This is an action brought by Dillard, who is an attorney, to collect money from the railroad company for services rendered in the securing of the right of way between this city and the Sound. Judge Deady held that the Northern Pacific, being an organization incorporated by congress, had standing in the United States courts, and cited several recent decisions from the supreme court of the United States upholding his position.

SIX MONTHS IN THE COUNTY JAIL.—Charles Mann withdrew his former plea of not guilty in department No. 2 of the state circuit court and entered a plea of guilty. His crime consisted in stealing a shovel and some other tools from George Ross. The evidence against him was clear, and he could in no way have escaped conviction, but the court felt convinced that clemency in this case would be well bestowed, and accordingly sentenced the prisoner to six months' imprisonment in the county jail.

ARRAIGNED FOR LIBEL.—The Oregon City Enterprise says: "Mr. A. Noltner, editor of the Portland Standard, was arraigned before Justice S. B. Califf last Tuesday on a charge of libel. He waived examination and furnished bonds for $500, with Dr. Ross and George Clarke as sureties. The article upon which this suit is founded appeared in the Standard of May 1, and contains accusations against the bank of Oregon City that are considered libelous."

GAVE SECURITY FOR HIS BOARD.—M. T. Cleghorn, who was arrested as an absconding debtor and sought to regain his liberty through a writ of habeas corpus, found a surer means yesterday. He settled his differences with the National hotel by surrendering his railroad ticket as security for the board bill he owed, and agreed to stop at the house on credit until he could obtain a remittance from his father in Iowa sufficient to settle all bills.

LEFT FOR HOME.—Mr. Charles Francis Adams, Jr., and party left at 2 o'clock this morning by special train under charge of Mr. H. S. Rowe, superintendent of the O. R. & N. Co. They will reach Walla Walla about noon to-day, take a short drive, and then go to Dayton, taking a good look at the famous wheat fields of that region. Mr. Adams' car will return to Wallula Junction, and be attached to the regular train over the Northern Pacific to-night. The party will go direct to St. Paul.

CHILDREN'S DAY EXERCISES.—To-morrow will be observed by the congregations of Taylor street and Hall street Methodist churches as children's day. A sermon will be delivered by the pastor in the forenoon, the regular session of the Sunday school will be held as usual, and the evening be devoted exclusively to Sunday school exercises. An unusually excellent programme has been prepared and efforts will be made to make this an occasion of great interest.

FOURTH OF JULY.—The committee on the day's celebration met again last night and heard reports from the finance committee, who have only made a partial canvass of the city, but have raised enough money already to make the celebration a decided success. Those interested in boating will please meet at the L. C. & R. T. Co.'s office at 7:30 Monday evening. The meeting adjourned until 8 P. M. Monday, at the same place.

RECEIVED HER DOWER.—Judge Smith rendered a decision yesterday morning in the case of Mrs. Alice Fain against Mary E. Fain and others. This was an action brought by the plaintiff to recover her dower in the property held by her step-daughters, and situate on the corner of Fifth and Salmon streets. The court held for the plaintiff and adjudged to her a life use of one-third of the property.

SPORT AT CITY VIEW PARK.—To-morrow the newly organized Oregon City base ball club will play the first of a series of games with the Portlands. There will be a running race half mile and repeat, between Hastings, Winters, Record and Telegraph. All the horses are in fine condition and good sport is promised. The steamer Salem will leave the foot of Morrison street at 12:30 and 1:30 P. M.

HEAVY ROBBERY.—Some time yesterday, during the absence of the family, the house of the engineer of Weidler's sawmill, who resides at the corner of Fourteenth and H streets, was entered and $[illegible] in greenbacks stolen from the trunk of an old man who lodges there. The robbery was evidently perpetrated by some one familiar with the premises.

THE SUNDAY OREGONIAN.

[illegible] issue of the SUNDAY OREGONIAN will contain, in addition to the regular features and full local and general news, the following special articles:

THE STORY OF "ANDREW MORE."—The conclusion of this remarkable story will be given, much to the satisfaction of those who became interested in the preceding chapters.

PIONEER DAYS.—Article IX treats of the adventures and personal characteristics of the celebrated Mountain Men, or "Free Hunters," of early times in the northwest. Squire Ebberts, Joe Meek and other famous trappers are sketched.

IN SWITZERLAND.—Mr. Suksdorf this week takes the reader through the St. Gothard tunnel into Switzerland, visiting Lake Lucerne and the many scenes made memorable by the legends of William Tell.

"[illegible] HARD LUCK."—Mr. Sam. L. Simpson [illegible] in the above an idyl of the [illegible] days of Oregon in their palmy days with his accustomed vivacity and skill.

OUR [illegible] LETTER.—An ample review of Mr. [illegible] M. Stanley's new book on the Congo [illegible] an admirable sketch of the late [illegible] comprise the topics of Joseph Hatton's letter in this issue.

NEW YORK NOTES.—Our letter from the great metropolis deals with a variety of topics, including President Cleveland's visit, and social, personal and other notes of interest.

KATE SAXON'S LOVES.—Mr. Julian Hawthorne is again represented in the columns of the SUNDAY OREGONIAN by a story of merit and not less interesting than his previous ones.

MAX O'RELL.—A medley of subjects of transient and permanent interest has been touched upon by our versatile correspondent from London.

Several other special articles have been prepared for this issue, adding to its value and striking interest.

The Oregonian.

PORTLAND, SATURDAY, JUNE 13, 1885

MAKING A MESS OF IT.

"The principles of the democratic party, fellow citizens, are the principles—the principles, I may say—of the democratic party." The orator's introductory remark was simple and perfectly intelligible. He didn't involve himself in any difficulties. Upon the basis on which he proposed to conduct the discussion there could be no dispute. "The principles of the democratic party are—the principles of the democratic party?" What could be more simple, express or admirable?

It is a pity that Brother Pennoyer and our esteemed democratic contemporary that gives him its support could not have confined themselves to this beautiful and indisputable proposition. All then might have been harmony, where now there are clashing opinions and divided counsels. They started out to contest the city election on a party basis. They called a democratic convention, and the candidates were nominated as democrats. Had the brethren adhered to the simple proposition that the principles of the democratic party are the principles of the democratic party, there would have been plain sailing. But Brother Pennoyer comes out with an address, in which he virtually says that he is not running as a democrat at all, but that the sole question is water rates—though he admits that the mayor and common council have no power over the subject. The whole burden of his address, let us say with submission, is an irrelevant, rambling, extravagant and crotchety talk upon a matter that cannot be affected by the election one way or another and the democratic party, whose candidate Brother Pennoyer is, isn't mentioned at all.

This, in itself, would be remarkable enough, but in the course of the party organ that supports Brother Pennoyer there is a still more remarkable departure, which involves the contest in the deepest of contradictions. Brother Pennoyer in his address says that the water company are trying to run this election, and that the sole question is whether the city is to be ruled and robbed by this water company, under the direction of its "political boss." But the organ that supports him ignores his statement altogether, asserts that the republican ticket was set up by the hydraulic elevator and electric light company, and declares that the sole question is whether this corporation shall be permitted to "run" the city government in its interest or not.

Here, indeed, is a perplexing division in "the party" on the eve of an election. On either hand "democratic principles" are forgotten, while the most eminent authorities in the party differ radically and violently as to what the leading question before the people is.

The perplexity is deepened, and becomes in fact hopeless, when it is observed that Brother Pennoyer declares that the opposition ticket was nominated by the water company for the sole purpose of doing that company's work, while his best organ asserts that it was selected by the hydraulic and electric light company expressly to serve its interests. Now nothing is better known than the fact that these companies are competitors and rivals. The hydraulic company, by introducing its water mains, has come into active competition with the old water company. It gets $600 a month from the city for its fire hydrants, while the old water company gets but $300 a month from the city for the water it furnishes for all purposes. Again, on lighting the city there is still stronger competition between the companies. The Portland water company and the Portland gaslight company are composed of the same men, as the electric light company and the hydraulic elevator company are the same. The electric light people, after a vigorous fight in the council, have beaten the gas light people; consequently we have the electric light on the principal streets, and gas is banished from the streets altogether.

"The people of Portland," Brother Pennoyer exclaims, "cannot afford to put their city government into the hands of the water company." "The people of Portland," the Standard exclaims, "cannot afford to put their city government into the hands of the hydraulic elevator and electric light company." "The republican ticket was nominated by the water company," cries Brother Pennoyer. "It was nominated by the hydraulic and electric company," declares Brother Noltner. This unhappy difference is the natural result of ill-advised departure from the position upon which the brethren might have found safe and common ground. They advertise a democratic ticket. Why didn't they bar all dissension and present a strong issue, by declaring that the principles of the democratic party are—the principles of the democratic party?" That would be enough. Getting away from it they are hopelessly in the fog of contradiction and uncertainty. In short, they have "made a mess of it."

[illegible] WHISKY SCHEME.

Whisky is a troublesome as well as an expensive luxury. The American people pay annually no less than $[illegible] for the "fun" they get out of the consumption of liquors of all kinds. They spend less than that for bread and meat—the items being $[illegible] for bread and $303,000,000 for meat. It would seem that these common articles are dependent on alcohol, or some other properties found in whisky, wine and beer, and it requires $[illegible],000,000 worth of liquids to wash down the solids.

There are those who regard intoxicants as a nuisance to be abated altogether, while the majority are content to tolerate them as an unavoidable evil and to regulate the sale and use of them so as to realize the largest revenue with the least possible injury to health and morals. It is a fact not to be questioned, however, that the manufacture of whisky has been largely overdone, and that the time is approaching when the government must cease to extend any further favors to those engaged in the business.

There are many millions of dollars now due in the shape of taxes on whisky now on hand, and the time for payment has been postponed and extended until distillers have got the notion into their heads that they will eventually escape the tax altogether. Some six months ago Secretary McCulloch extended the time for payment seven months, and as that time is now rapidly approaching an appeal is being made to Secretary Manning for further time. The plea always has been that the market is too heavily overstocked and the prices too low to justify payment of the tax, and this in face of the fact that nearly every extension heretofore granted has been followed by a further increase of production.

The plan now is to get a favorable opinion from Attorney-General Garland, upon which the distillers will base their petition to Secretary Manning for a further suspension of the law and the exemption of the holders of whisky from the overdue taxes. The purpose is to keep the collectors off until congress meets, when that body will be asked to abolish the tax or grant three years' additional relief. The representatives of the whisky interests claim that they have Attorney-General Garland, Speaker Carlisle, Senator Beck, and other leading democrats committed to the support of their scheme.

The extent of the cattle ranges of the United States is shown in a striking manner by the report on the subject just issued by the bureau of statistics at Washington, of which THE OREGONIAN heretofore has given a brief notice. The statistics show that the area in which the cattle interests leads all others embraces 1,365,000 square miles, and is about 44 per cent., or a little less than half of the United States, and is equal to Great Britain and Ireland, France, Germany, Denmark, Holland, Belgium, Austria, Hungary, Italy, Spain and Portugal and one-fifth of Russia in Europe. Over 7,500,000 cattle graze on the plains occupied by these ranges, and their value reaches the total of $200,000,000. The significant fact is stated that 21,000,000 acres of this grazing territory is owned by foreign syndicates and English noblemen.

Last week's report showed $151,000,000 cash lying idle in the New York banks. Dull times throughout the country are not caused by scarcity of money. Indeed, money never was so plenty before, but its owners distrust nearly all "investments" that offer and the profits of business are so small that those who could use money can't afford to pay interest on it.

MR. GATES'S PLATFORM.

PORTLAND, June 12, 1885.

To the Citizens of Portland:—The unexpected nomination which I received from the republican convention presents my name for an office in which I may be of service in reforming some of the abuses of the city government, and in enforcing an economical administration of city affairs. I desire to assure the citizens of Portland that my efforts on every subject shall be devoted to their interests, and particularly towards reducing the burdens of taxation. In this respect I desire it to be fully understood that I consider the taxes in the levying of which the people of Portland have no voice to be the most onerous and exorbitant of which they justly complain. The water rates, like the late monopoly rates in the prices of lumber, are a most offensive and oppressive tax upon the people of Portland, and they should be materially and permanently reduced. I do not feel like promising that as mayor of the city of Portland I could control the legislature of the state of Oregon, however much I might desire to relieve my fellow citizens from this onerous water monopoly. The empty honors of the mayor's office cannot induce me to say that I will do something which I may not be able to accomplish. But I can say that if I am elected to the office of mayor—and whether elected or not—I will upon all occasions use every honorable endeavor and the utmost power of my influence to secure a speedy and material reduction of the rates of water charges throughout the city of Portland. In this connection I desire to say also that I am under no promise, agreement, obligation or pledge to any person or corporation concerning anything I may or may not do if elected mayor, and that I do not own any stock in any corporation in Portland or elsewhere. My past conduct ought to be the best evidence of the fidelity with which I will discharge any duties that may be entrusted to me.

Respectfully, JOHN GATES.

NOT A STOCKHOLDER.

PORTLAND, OR., June [illegible]

TO THE EDITOR OF THE OREGONIAN:

It having been publicly stated that Mr. John Gates is a stockholder of the United States [illegible] Lighting and Power Co. of Portland, Or., and of the Portland Hydraulic Elevator Co., I, as president of both companies, take this opportunity of saying that Mr. Gates is not a stockholder in either of said companies, nor has he now, nor has he ever had any interest in or connection with either of said companies directly or indirectly.

Respectfully yours,
J. [illegible] HAWKINS, President.

New York finished 1884 with a net debt of $91,[illegible],000, and Brooklyn with a net debt of $38,[illegible]; but the disproportion, although greater than that of population, is not equal to that of the annual cost of the municipal government of the two cities. Brooklyn pays less than $9,000,000 a year, or about $12 per capita, for government while New York pays about $30,000,000, or $20 per capita.

It is stated that the manuscript writings of Victor Hugo will fill ten volumes. The three volumes which are almost ready for circulation embrace prose and poetry. The other seven will consist of notes and letters written in exile.

POLITICAL EXPRESSION.

Chicago Tribune: The democratic party employed political murder to get control of the government, and through Meade's removal it has been pilloried before the nation as doing it by the president of its own election.

Chicago Journal: President Cleveland's private secretary wants his salary raised from $3,500, the price paid his republican predecessors, to $5,000. He has to stand the brunt of the assault from democratic office seekers. There is no wonder that he wants his pay increased.

Philadelphia Press: One of Brother Beecher's sons has been made a collector of customs out in Washington territory. From a steamboat clerk to a revenue officer, confers, is kindly well with Brother Beecher's views on evolution.

Says the Montgomery (Ala.) Advertiser: Fred Douglass has rented a pew in the same church attended by President Cleveland, and proposes to sit in it every Sunday with his white wife. The president will have to turn this man out of office. The southern gentleman may have faults, but he never so far forgets himself as to recognize the mother of his brunette children as his wife.—Boston Transcript.

Indianapolis Journal: The colored man owes nothing to the democratic party. It has been his enemy, his persecutor and oppressor for generations. It is to-day. Colored men who have no higher ambition than to squeeze in a menial position under democracy, who cherish no manly resentment for the century of indignities and humiliations heaped upon them by the democratic party, should take the hint and bend their backs in the service of the democratic party.

Mother Beecher did it.

Milwaukee Wisconsin.

In view of the appointment, many of the Rev. Beecher's friends are at unnecessarily great pains to inform the world that that gentleman has persistently refused to say one word in behalf of his son's appointment, and has even prohibited other members of his family from doing so. A few days ago the report was current that Henry Ward would not personally intercede for his boy, but that Henry Ward's wife was arranging things as skillfully as any politician. The fact of the appointment argues that the recent report was truthful, and those who remember President Cleveland's extraordinary letter about Maria Halpin, written to Mrs. Beecher during the presidential campaign, will be strongly inclined to think that Beecher the son owes his new and lucrative federal office wholly to his mother.

A Bulldozer on Bulldozing.

Philadelphia Press.

The Charleston News and Courier commends Mr. Cleveland for asking for the resignation of J. J. Meade, the Copiah county bulldozer. It says that "Meade took an active part in a most discreditable local political row, and, even from a democratic point of view, his conduct in the matter was not such as to qualify him for a government office." Correct. But as the News goes so far, why does it not continue to the logical conclusion of its own premises? The governor, all the state officers and four of the seven congressmen in South Carolina hold office through the same means that Meade is condemned for using. It sounds like the devil rebuking sin to hear a South Carolina bulldozer condemn a Mississippi bulldozer.

THE M'MINNVILLE POSTMASTER.

McMINNVILLE, June 12, 1885.

To the Editor of The Oregonian:

Your issue of June 10, 1885, I notice that you refer to the appointment at McMinnville as being given to one who was an admirer of the lost cause. Now sir, I do not know who your informer was nor do I care, but I have this much to say, that it is false.

I was born in the year 1851.

I emigrated to this country in 1852 with my parents.

I demand a retraction. I pronounce it a lie in the plainest terms. Respectfully,

J. F. WISECARVER.

It is plain that culture "as well as "civil service reform" has struck Yamhill.—Ed.

ANTI-HIGH-LICENSE RESOLUTION

Resolution adopted at the meeting of the W. C. T. U. last evening:

Resolved, That we have listened to the argument of Rev. F. Ainsbaugh in discussing the operations of the high-license law in states where it has been introduced, and we acknowledge that it unanswerably proved that as an effort to suppress the liquor traffic it is absolutely a failure and is so recognized by such well-known dignitaries of the church as Bishop Ireland and Bishop Spalding.

The above resolution was adopted by the union and requested to be given to the city papers. The lecture this evening will be "The Organization of the Liquor Dealers to Defeat the Work of Temperance."

LOCAL AND GENERAL.

ACROSS THE CONTINENT IN FOUR DAYS.—"I never could have been made to believe when I came to this country in an ox team that a man would ever be able to ride across this country in four days," remarked a pioneer of '52 in the Esmond office yesterday afternoon, as he saw Elijah Smith, president of the O. R. & N. company, alight from a carriage and come in. The trip as compared with Jarrett & Palmer's theatrical train is not remarkable, yet it was only twelve hours slower than that famous run, and the fastest ever made to Oregon. Mr. Smith left New York at 6 10 Monday night and reached the end of his rail journey at the O. and C. ferry landing, East Portland, at 4 15 yesterday afternoon, making the entire time occupied in traveling 3232 miles, including the three hours difference in time, ninety-seven hours and five minutes. The trip from New York to Chicago was made in 26 hours over the Pennsylvania lines, in a slow train, there being an express train in 24 hours. Chicago to Omaha was made in 11 hours, and here was a stop of three hours. The only real fast running was on the Union Pacific, Laramie to Rawlins, 137 miles, was made in 2 hours and 63 minutes, three minutes faster than the Jarrett & Palmer train. Rawlins to Green river, 135 miles in 2 hours and 50 minutes, 10 minutes faster than the former record. The first thirty-nine miles west of Sydney were made in 39 minutes. There was a delay of 3 hours Thursday afternoon on the Short Line by the breaking of an eccentric, two short delays yesterday on the Baker City branch and nearly an hour's stop at The Dalles. The run from Huntington to Portland, 401 miles, was made in 16 hours and 45 minutes, including stops. The entire running time from New York to Portland, including necessary stops for wood, water and changing engines, was 89 hours and 40 minutes, an average of just 36 miles an hour.

CONVICTED OF BURGLARY.—Wie Ying, the Chinaman indicted for burglary at the White house on the macadam road, where Robert Wiltze lost his pantaloons, gold watch and chain and all the loose silver he had in his pockets, was tried before Judge Stearns and a jury yesterday, and in a very short time convicted. Immediately afterward the case of Ah Sing, also indicted for burglary in robbing a hen roost, was called. Attorneys Carey and Snow, who were appointed to defend him, labored as earnestly for his acquittal as though he was a millionaire, taking the ground that a hen roost was not a house, and hence breaking into it did not constitute burglary. The jury did not look at the case in that light, but promptly returned a verdict of guilty.

NEW SUITS.—Complaint was filed in the county clerk's office yesterday by H. A. Hogue vs. S. J. Mooney and Robert Law, asking judgment against the defendants in the sum of $341 68 to pay for lumber furnished Law to build two cottages for Mooney. Emil Weber also brings suit against William R. Frazer to recover $240, alleged to be due upon a certain promissory note dated November 27, 1884, and secured by a mortgage upon two lots in Albina. Jennie Oller seeks a divorce from her husband, William Oller, upon the ground that he systematically neglects to provide for her support, but on the contrary has attempted to force her to prostitute herself for his support. They were married in East Portland April 23, 1883.

AN OLD CRIMINAL RETURNS.—Ah Sam and Ah Jim were arrested yesterday for slambanging gongs on the street, whereby the peace and dignity of the city were disturbed and all that sort of thing. It seems that Sam Duck, who used to keep the opium joint on Fifth street, where Dunlap was shot nearly two years ago, has returned to this city. He "skipped out" after Dunlap was shot and went up the Northern where he made about $1000. He returned about two months ago and has "blown in" his entire fortune in various kinds of dissipation. He has now started a new Highbinder society, and the two Ahs mentioned above were beating gongs in honor of the event when they were arrested. Sam Duck kept out of sight himself, as he has his eternal satisfy of being arrested and imprisoned.

WOULD NOT REMAND THE CASE.—In the United States circuit court yesterday morning Judge Deady delivered an opinion denying the motion to remand to the state circuit court the case of Dillard against the Northern Pacific Railroad Company. This is an action brought by Dillard, who is an attorney, to collect money from the railroad company for services rendered in the securing of the right of way between this city and the Sound. Judge Deady held that the Northern Pacific, being an organization incorporated by congress, had standing in the United States courts, and cited several recent decisions from the supreme court of the United States upholding his position.

SIX MONTHS IN THE COUNTY JAIL.—Charles Mann withdrew his former plea of not guilty in department No. 2 of the state circuit court and entered a plea of guilty. His crime consisted in stealing a shovel and some other tools from George Rose. The evidence against him was clear, and he could in no way have escaped conviction, but the court felt convinced that clemency in this case would be well bestowed, and accordingly sentenced the prisoner to six months' imprisonment in the county jail.

ARRAIGNED FOR LIBEL.—The Oregon City Enterprise says: "Mr. A. Noltner, editor of the Portland Standard, was arraigned before Justice S. B. Califf last Tuesday on a charge of libel. He waived examination and furnished bonds for $500, with Dr. Ross and George Clarke as sureties. The article upon which this suit is founded appeared in the Standard of May 1, and contains accusations against the bank of Oregon City that are considered libelous."

GAVE SECURITY FOR HIS BOARD.—M. T. Cleghorn, who was arrested as an absconding debtor and sought to regain his liberty through a writ of habeas corpus, found a surer means yesterday. He settled his differences with the National hotel by surrendering his railroad ticket as security for the board bill he owed, and agreed to stop at the house on credit until he could obtain a remittance from his father in Iowa sufficient to settle all bills.

LEFT FOR HOME.—Mr. Charles Francis Adams, Jr., and party left at 2 o'clock this morning by special train under charge of Mr. H. S. Rowe, superintendent of the O. R. & N. Co. They will reach Walla Walla about noon to-day, take a short drive, and then go to Dayton, taking a good look at the famous wheat fields of that region. Mr. Adams' car will return to Wallula Junction, and be attached to the regular train over the Northern Pacific to-night. The party will go direct to St. Paul.

CHILDREN'S DAY EXERCISES.—To-morrow will be observed by the congregations of Taylor street and Hall street Methodist churches as children's day. A sermon will be delivered by the pastor in the forenoon, the regular session of the Sunday school will be held as usual, and the evening be devoted exclusively to Sunday school exercises. An unusually excellent programme has been prepared and efforts will be made to make this an occasion of great interest.

FOURTH OF JULY.—The committee on the day's celebration met again last night and heard reports from the finance committee, who have only made a partial canvass of the city, but have raised enough money already to make the celebration a decided success. Those interested in boating will please meet at the C. C. A. B. T. Co.'s office at 7 30 Monday evening. The meeting adjourned until 8 P. M. Monday at the same place.

RECEIVED HER DOWER.—Judge Smith rendered a decision yesterday morning in the case of Mrs. Alice Fain against Mary E. Fain and others. This was an action brought by the plaintiff to recover her dower in the property held by her step-daughters, and situate on the corner of Fifth and Salmon streets. The court held for the plaintiff and adjudged to her a life use of one-third of the property.

SPORT AT CITY VIEW PARK.—To-morrow the newly organized Oregon City base ball club will play the first of a series of games with the Portlands. There will be a running race half mile and repeat, between Hastings, Winters, Record and Telego. All the horses are in fine condition and good sport is promised. The steamer Salem will leave the foot of Morrison street at 12 30 and 1 30 P. M.

A HEAVY ROBBERY.—Some time yesterday, during the absence of the family, the house of the engineer of Weidler's sawmill, who resides at the corner of Fourteenth and H streets, was entered and $1200 in greenbacks stolen from the trunk of an old man who lodges there. The robbery was evidently perpetrated by some one familiar with the premises.

CAUGHT STEALING POTATOES.—Early yesterday morning Mow Puck, a Chinaman, was caught stealing potatoes out of a sack in front of a commission house. In the police court in the afternoon he was convicted of the theft and sentenced to imprisonment in the city jail for twenty five days.

DECISION TO BE ANNOUNCED.—Judge Seneca Smith will announce this morning in department No. 1 of the state circuit court a decision in the case of Harrington vs. La Rocque, deft., and Apperson, garnishee, upon the demurrer to the answer of the garnishee.

BOARD OF SCHOOL DIRECTORS

The Present Debt of the District to be Paid by Bonds—A Discussion on the System of Vice Principals

A regular meeting of the board of school directors was held last evening in the city council chamber. All the members were present.

The minutes of the last regular and special meetings were read and approved. The minutes of the special meeting have not heretofore been published although an important matter came up and was acted upon at that time. This was the rescinding of the resolutions adopted at the previous regular meeting relating to the issuance of $100,000 of bonds to J. Steinhart of San Francisco and adopting a similar set which provides that the present indebtedness of $50,000 to the bank of British Columbia shall be taken up by Steinhart, who will take his pay in bonds.

Consideration of contracts for furnishing the high school with desks, maps, books, etc., was postponed until 2 P. M. to-day.

J. H. Rankin asked that he be freed from paying a delinquent tax of $3.

Newton Drew applied for the position of janitor in any school where there might be a vacancy.

The resignation of Adora H. Todd, teacher in the Failing school, was read and accepted.

Applications for teachers' positions were made by Kate M. Tupper, Alice Farrish, Carrie E. Colby, Mary D. Dibbles, Annabel Bloomer, Kate F. Colburn, Miriam L. Rose, Nellie J. Eaton, Nellie M. Green, Hannah F. Oliver, Nellie Withers, Hattie Knapp, Harry C. Montgomery, Amos W. Plummer, Kate E. Freeman and Maggie F. McFadden.

Mr. Wasserman asked for a thirty days leave of absence as he proposed going east; granted.

Upon a motion to continue the vice principals in their positions Mr. Dodd offered some objections. He thought the present system was conceived in error and was strongly opposed to it. He favored putting a vice principal or resident teacher in each building and not employing supernumeraries. Mr. Dodd put his views in the form of a motion, which was discussed at some length.

Mr. Thompson opposed it on the ground that if the vice principalship was wrong it should be abolished at once.

Mr. Wilson also opposed the motion on the ground of economy.

Mr. Dodd said if economy was the only question he would rather pay out of his own pocket the extra sum needed for teachers than that the public schools should suffer. He would like to have a vice principal for each school.

The workings of the present system was reviewed at some length, and with them a majority of the board seemed satisfied. Mr. Dodd's motion was voted down and the present system of vice principals continued. The board then adjourned.

THE O. R. & N. ELECTION

Each Side Equally Divided, and W. S. Ladd of this City Holding the Balance of Power—The President Arrives Here Yesterday

At the annual meeting of the Oregon Railway and Navigation company to be held here next Monday a strong effort will be made to prevent the re-election of Elijah Smith as president of the company. It is very difficult to get the inside of the fight, because those who know will not tell about it, and neither of the contending factions wants to make public its plans. Yesterday Messrs. Wm. N. Endicott, Jr., and N. P. Hallowell of Boston, who are supposed to be friendly to Mr. Smith, arrived over the N. P. They were accompanied by Senator Dolph. In the evening Mr. Smith arrived over the Short Line, having a special all the way from Chicago. Mr. Ives, representing the opposition, arrived the day before and took rooms at the Esmond. The supposition is that the principal opposition to Mr. Smith comes from the New York syndicate. When the loan of $9,000,000 was made to the syndicate Pierrepont Morgan, Brayton Ives and W. N. [illegible] and others, as holders of the voting power of the stock pledged to the syndicate their power to vote the stock continues as long as the stock was in pledge. There were 140,000 shares of the stock pledged.

Report says that Mr. Smith has proxies for nearly [illegible] 000 shares, and that those opposed to him [illegible] 100 shares. As the capital stock is 240,000 shares, [illegible] side has a majority and it is evident that [illegible] stock pledged to the syndicate is not a unit against Mr. Smith. A few shares are unrepresented and Portland holds the balance. W. S. Ladd owns 6000 shares and other directors about [illegible] 00, but Mr. Ladd occupies the unenviable position of the go-between in this particular campaign. Whichever side gets his vote will be victorious and he is in as good a position to either faction as Croum was to Tilden in [illegible]. A reporter of this paper who called at Mr. Ladd's residence last night to get his views on the situation found him [illegible] fingers bound [illegible] and was informed [illegible] that Mr. Ladd was [illegible] and at that time [illegible] last until [illegible].

It is reported that Mr. Ladd has not yet [illegible] and has not yet [illegible] satisfied with Mr. Smith's management.

AMUSEMENT NOTES.

The Casino reopened to a big house last night. Miss Foster sang Arline's well known aria, "I Dreamt that I Dwelt in Marble Halls," and received prolonged applause.

R. S. Ward, business manager of the Kate Castleton company, is in the city. The company will come to Portland [illegible] Short [illegible], reaching here July [illegible] with "Crazy Patch" written by [illegible].

CHANGE IN TIME.—Commencing to-morrow the Northern Pacific train for the Sound will leave at 1 15 P. M. and arrive at Tacoma at 8 P. M. South bound, the train will leave Tacoma at 5 20 A. M., and arrive here at 1 15 P. M. In short, the train will leave here fifteen minutes later and arrive here fifteen minutes earlier than at present.

THE TOURNAMENT.

Capitals No. One of Salem Champions of the State.

They Beat Rescues No. 2 of Astoria One-fifth of a Second—Salem Chosen for the Next Tournament—Notes

The fire laddies, though rather wearied at the conclusion of their two days' exertions at Astoria, turned out yesterday morning refreshed by a good night's rest and eager to resume the contests and bring the tournament to an end. The first event was:

State association champion hose race—Open to all; wet run, distance 900 yards to hydrant, lay 350 feet of hose, disconnect the last or seventh section, take out the third section from hydrant and replace with last or seventh section, and connect the section removed to the sixth section, attach pipe and throw water. Time to be called when the water leaves the pipe. All couplings after the start to be made to the full. Hose and couplings to be regulation four ply rubber hose two and a half inches in diameter, with couplings of eight threads to the inch. Any service cart or carriage may be used that is capable of holding four hundred feet of regulation fire hose, and service pipe to be not less than ten inches in length. Hose and pipe was supplied by the committee on the grounds. Number of men not to exceed fifteen, exclusive of captain or trainer, and all must be on the rope or reel from the start. No harness allowed to assist the runners. First prize $100; second prize $45. Capitals of Salem won the first prize, time 1 minute 21 3-5 seconds; Rescue of Astoria took second prize, time 1 minute 21 4-5 seconds.

There was a dispute about the result of this contest. It was claimed that one of Capital's couplings had not been made to the full. It is claimed by them that this was owing to a defect in the threads of the coupling and that the coupling could not have been made any better. It held at all events and the use of a "spanner" was required to uncouple it. The judges in their report awarded the first prize to Capital Hose Company, No. 1, of Salem. The members of Rescue Engine Company No. 2 filed a protest against awarding the prize to the Capitals with the board of directors, whose decision in the matter will be final, and the committee of arrangements were compelled to suspend the payment of the prize to the winners.

The last event was firemen's foot race, distance 150 yards; winner of 300-yard race barred out; prize, $50, won by R. D. Patton of Capital Hose Co. No. 1 of Salem, in 14 4-5 seconds as given by the judges, but it would seem as if there must have been some mistake, as this would be extraordinarily fast time.

The prizes were paid with the exception mentioned above, at 1 P. M., and at 2 P. M. the Telephone left up with the happiest crowd that ever sailed up the Columbia, and it may be added truthfully the noisiest one.

They arrived here at 9 45, and the firemen formed in procession, headed by the Home Amusement club band of Salem and members of the company carrying brooms presented by the Astoria boys. They marched down First street, but did not shout any as their lungs and throats were about used up.

Should the weather be pleasant the Salem and Albany firemen will meet at the foot of Morrison street at 2 30 o'clock P. M. to-day and headed by the H. A. C. band of the former city will parade through some of our principal business streets in their racing uniform and drawing their racing carts. The Eugene firemen were compelled to start home by the regular train this morning.

The Capitals are the champions of Oregon for three years sure and they will try and see that they are for several years longer. They will remain here to have their pictures taken this afternoon and will leave for home by the evening express. Arrangements are being made to give them a rousing reception on their arrival when the remainder of the population of Salem will shout themselves hoarse.

In conclusion it may truthfully be said that the tournament was a grand success. The hospitality of the Astoria firemen was unbounded. Everything passed off pleasantly. The weather was delightful. The firemen collectively composed as fine a body of young men as can be found anywhere, and their contests throughout were spirited. There was no wrangling, no hoodlumism. Good order was maintained and all conducted themselves as gentlemen should. The companies who compose the Oregon Firemen's Association are a credit to their towns and the state, and THE OREGONIAN congratulates them most heartily on the records they have made at the tournament just closed, as in many instances they compare very favorably with those of older states. The tournament next year will be held at Salem, the date to be fixed hereafter by the directors of the association.

ALBANY NOTES.

ALBANY, June 12.

Mrs. J. F. Sox of Seattle is visiting friends in this city.

Preparations are rapidly being made for a big time in Albany July 4th.

Mrs. Dr. J. J. Irvine of Prineville is in the city visiting friends and relatives.

Mr. Robert Crawford of Boise City is visiting in this city with his brothers, John A. and William Crawford.

Work has been commenced on Hon. J. K. Weatherford's new residence in the eastern portion of the city.

Frederick Ihrig, brother of Adam Ihrig of this city, has removed here from Puget sound with the intention of locating permanently.

A camp meeting under the auspices of the M. E. church will commence the 5th inst. at Mr. Blevins' farm on the Calapooia and continue several weeks.

The city presents rather a deserted appearance as a number of prominent men are attending the Masonic lodge and a goodly portion of the fire boys are at Astoria.

Invitations have been received here for the marriage of Mr. Alf. Harris, formerly of this city, and Miss Addie Raphael of San Francisco, to take place in that city June 25, 1885.

A Chinaman named Lee Jay Yit was tried before Recorder Henton and bound over in the sum of $100 for stealing a watch from another Mongolian. His chances for a stay at Salem are good.

The drama "Among the Breakers" was well rendered at Crawford's hall, each of the players representing their respective characters to the satisfaction of all present. The entertainment netted the fire boys about $50.

A telegram received last evening announcing the fact that the Albany team had received the second prize in the hose race was a surprise to many, as the boys had never practiced but once and the dry test, in which they received fifth place, they had never tried at all.

At the last meeting of the county commissioners a bridge of 120 feet span was ordered built across the South Santiam at Sweet Home and also a bridge across the Muddy at Halsey. The bridges will fill a long felt want for the residents in those sections of the country.

From Mr. Elkins who has returned from Eastern Oregon it is learned that the party consisting of Mr. Davis and others who went in search of the Blue Bucket mines found the traditional grave, but after sinking two shafts were unable to find the gold. After working several days the party scattered, fully satisfied in their own minds of the [illegible] mines [illegible] spoken of [illegible] a delusion.

The citizens of Albany held a meeting last Tuesday evening to take the initiatory steps towards entertaining the Iowa excursionists, who will arrive here Friday night, [illegible]. An executive committee consisting of W. M. Ketch, W. B. Blc[illegible], S. S. Train, N. H. Allen and O. P. [illegible] was appointed. Also C. W. Watts was appointed a committee of one on transportation to secure teams. After lunch the session the meeting adjourned to meet again Saturday evening, at which time all arrangements will be perfected for giving the distinguished guests a fitting reception.

HOW TO SHORTEN LIFE.

The receipt is simple: You have only to take a violent cold and neglect it. Abernethy the great English surgeon asked a lady who told him she only had a cough: "What would you have? The plague?" Beware of "only coughs." The worst cases can, however, be cured by DR. WM. HALL'S BALSAM for the LUNGS. In Whooping Cough and Croup it immediately allays irritation and is sure to prevent a fatal termination of the disease. Sold by druggists.

FOR TWENTY YEARS

Potters have been trying to produce a ware equal to the "PEORIA POTTERY."

NONE HAVE SUCCEEDED!

Many imitations have been put on the market, but all are defective either in body, shape or glaze.

The Peoria Ware is made from a peculiarly fine clay, which is most carefully ground and strained.

It is the only article of the kind which is made in moulds. The shapes are consequently perfect and the covers fit.

The Glaze is Unequaled and is Warranted BRINE and ACID PROOF.

CAUTION. The immense sale of the Peoria has induced some unscrupulous parties to represent and sell an inferior ware as PEORIA, and we would warn the trade against such fraudulent practice, many cases of which have come to our knowledge.

Every piece of Genuine Peoria is stamped "PEORIA POTTERY."

A comparison of samples of any ware made with the PEORIA will convince any one that the Peoria has not been equaled yet.

Remember the GENUINE can be had at wholesale, only of

A CARD.

We adopt this method to inform the public, both of this city and its surroundings, of a very important change to take place shortly. Our business will undergo a complete change by the introduction of entirely new lines of goods. We shall open a Mammoth Bargain Store on the style of Macy's of New York. Our assortment will embrace about everything that can be conveniently sold on our premises. The new lines to be added to our present stock will be Ladies and Gents' Furnishing Goods, Ladies and Misses' Suits, Cloaks, etc., Household Dry Goods, Millinery Goods, etc., etc.; and to that end our eastern resident buyer is now busily engaged buying up all the bargains to be secured. These new lines, together with our lines, familiar to the public, such as Crockery, Glassware, Silverware, Cutlery, Kerosene Fixtures, Baby Carriages, Refrigerators, Toys, Dolls, Household Furniture, Fancy Goods, Leather Goods, etc., etc., will make our establishment a feature on this coast. The opening of this new business will take place early the coming month.

IMPORTANT! IMPORTANT!

Referring to our circular above, we beg to announce that it will become an absolute necessity to make a QUICK AND SURE REDUCTION of our present stock. Enough goods must be sold to give us the room necessary for the display of our new lines of merchandise. Therefore we shall inaugurate a Partial Closing-Out Sale.

NOW IN PROGRESS.

Do not misunderstand us. We do not claim an absolute selling-out—we merely wish to sell off about one-quarter of our present stock. We wish the public to have the utmost confidence in all we advertise, and for that reason have stated as plainly as we know how our true position. Our present Partial Closing-out Sale will be carried through in every sense that the announcement implies.

Honest Reductions

Down to cost have been made in every department and we trust everybody who may require goods in our line will call on us.

LOOK! LOOK!

Further proof of honest reductions will be found in the list of articles enumerated below. They represent only a small portion of our immense stock. A visit to our establishment will be the most advisable to receive the evidence of our sincerity beyond question.

PRODUCE RECEIPTS—Last 48 hours [illegible] wheat, [illegible] ctls oats, 14 944 lbs wool, 45 lbs [illegible] eggs, [illegible] lbs hops, 7 pkgs butter [illegible] ctls wheat, 177 bbls flour, 835 ctls oats, 10 [illegible] 4 84 lbs hides from the eastern section.

FREIGHTS—The Zamora has short [illegible] days and will get away this month. She loads Walla Walla wheat [illegible] The [illegible] to complete with salmon and [illegible] third vessel in this berth, three lines being interested at this time. [illegible] lacks confirmation. It is generally believed the Kitty has been taken up for next [illegible] wheat loading. San Francisco advices say it is believed several vessels have been taken to arrive, one certainly for October loading [illegible] orders.

WHEAT—Foreign markets neglected. New York and Chicago both improved toward noon, probably being influenced by the June crop report of the government made public yesterday. One [illegible] market shows weakness although the general [illegible] renders an exact quotation quite impossible. Valley millers have lowered limits to $1 [illegible] and it would be difficult to exceed this figure. Receipts are principally Walla Walla and do not represent spot trading.

OATS—Market considerably dulled by continued weak advices and receipts are less. The next steamer has large engagements. Quote good to choice feed weak at 44@55c.

HOPS—Receipts noted to-day are through shipments from the sound. The local market is without life.

WOOL—Receipts include 107 734 lbs for shipment. Rail shipments for this month will be large. The market is fairly active without change.

FRUITS, ETC.—Fair business done [illegible] prices are without change. Grapes may soon [illegible] for from California. Berries [illegible] freely but outside orders are light.

EGGS—Steady at 1[illegible].

GRAIN BAGS.

The San Francisco Alta says of the grain bag situation: This article has commanded something more than ordinary attention during the last few days, resulting in some operations of more than ordinary magnitude in such dull times as now prevail in commercial circles. One operator having doubtless concluded that there was no hope for any improvement in values or increased demand for the cereal crop of 1885, accepted the situation and sold [illegible] parcel of about one million bags, probably at a loss of no mean proportion to [illegible] [illegible] is noted in this column. The auction rooms [illegible] resorted to for the purpose of placing about a half million of bags, all [illegible] in first-class condition, though not of this year's importation. The prices realized were, under all circumstances, fair, and indicate that there is a bottom figure even in an article which is to-day selling at a serious loss to the importer or speculator, whoever may be the vendor. It would appear from the transactions above alluded to that some parties interested in the trade must be hedging on the cost of imports, as it is universally conceded that, under the most favorable purchases made in the Calcutta market, the cost of standard 22x36 bags (duty paid) landed in San Francisco is not under 5 cents per bag, while many of this year's imports will cost considerably over that figure. The supply of bags, bagging material and jute for the manufacture of bags this year, added to the stock carried over from 1884 season, which is estimated between 38,000,000 and 40,000,000, will more than meet the wants of the Pacific coast for 1885, which is placed at not over 20,000,000 bags, and a large quantity will have to be carried over either by importers or speculators, and at prices now current it would appear that new importations from Calcutta could not compete with the carry-over stock in the year of 1886 if we should need new supplies for bagging the cereal products of this coast. It would seem that grain bags form no exception to general merchandise selling at losing prices in consequence of oversupply, and this fact should be fully recognized by importers. The farmer gets a great benefit in the price which he pays this season for his bags, and even though his crops may not be more than half [illegible] year's, he can well afford to pay [illegible] present price for his 22x36 bags, which [illegible] contain 136 lbs of good wheat.

NEW YORK STOCK MARKET.

NEW YORK, June 12.—Governments quiet; 4½ per cents are the same as yesterday; 3s continue strong. Stocks made a decided movement toward better prices and greater activity. There were advances for almost everything on the list, but Vanderbilts and Northwestern, both common and preferred, scored the greatest gains among the active stocks, both Lake Shore and New York Central closing to-night each 1 per cent higher than yesterday, while Northwestern common is up ⅞ and preferred 1½ per cent. Other advances are from ¼ to ⅝ per cent, comparatively weak stocks being Pacific Mail, which gained ⅛, and St Paul and Lackawanna, each of which is up ¼. Final dealings showed some weakness and the market closed heavy.

The Mail and Express says: Very little was done in mining shares. Little Chief sold at [illegible] California and Virginia $1 0[illegible], Chloride [illegible] Standard $1 60, Alta 75, Bulwer 55, Bassick [illegible] $1 10, Silver King $9, Union Con $1 [illegible] [illegible] Sutro Tunnel 8.
